

AYP Board Member Bio

Robin McGarrah-Martell

Robin joined the AYP board in April 2024. She moved to Manistee County in 2016, and she and her husband have one school-age son and two adult daughters. Robin has a long history of involvement with youth ministry, serving as a youth leader at the Big Rapids Resurrection Life Campus for 14 years. She currently attends Bridges Church of Manistee, where she served as the leadership board chair and the staff/pastor relations lead, and serves on the Praise & Worship Team.

Robin has worked in human services for over 18 years. Her experience ranges from crisis case management to prevention services. Currently, Robin supports Michigan's Trauma-Informed case practice model as a quality assurance analyst with the Department of Health & Human Services. She graduated with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice with a minor in Communications and a master's degree in criminal justice administration from Ferris State University.
