

AYP Board Member Bio
Emmersyn Sheaks

Emmersyn joined the AYP Board in May 2023 and is a member of the Nominating Committee. She is co-owner of Port City Rental Management and a realtor with City2Shore Port City Associates.

Emmersyn obtained her real estate license in May of 2023 and played an instrumental role in establishing Port City Rental Management LLC utilizing her skills of building systems, processes, marketing and long-term growth plans.

Emmersyn immerses herself in her work and is committed to educating others on how to take advantage of VA programs and the benefits of home ownership. She has closed multiple transactions for VA clients, investor clients, and both commercial sales and leases.

Emmersyn is not only invested in herself and her clients, she is invested in the community. She is committed to giving back and to help better the lives of youth in Manistee County through her AYP board involvement. She is a mother of two young sons and the wife of a marine.