

AYP Board Member Bio
Shellee Seymour

Seymour moved to Manistee, MI 14 years ago with husband and daughter. She is a member of the Faith Covenant Church (FCC). She has a B.S. Degree in Nutrition, Masters in Extension Education and multiple professional certifications. She recently retired from PNC after 27 years. She has worked in various positions in banking IT Project Management. Prior to that she worked 14 years in various USDA nutrition positions. She has non-profit board experience and served on a church council and Community Mental Health Youth Committee in Kalamazoo. Currently is serving on the Shoreline Showcase Committee and sings in the Manistee Community Chorale.

Seymour was the secretary of the AYP board in 2022 and took on the role of president in January 2023. In that capacity, she served as chair of the Executive Committee and Nominating Committee and was a member of the Governance Committee. Seymour continues to serving as a member of the board as past president.